

- HASITTAG MY NAME -

SUPER MILANO

28 Feb - 2 March 2015

The soul and the charm of hand-made items.

The project by Pini Imagine and Fiera Milano devoted to women's accessories and prêt-à-porter, in co-operation with the institutions and fashion colleges, will be holding its fifth edition. Its focus is product innovation and new outlooks in accessories, bringing together established firms and emerging brands in a totally new presentation; it will promote young Italian designers, welcome foreign talents and stage eye-opening events.

Valeria B.
Created by a Spanish designer, but all Made in Italy, the collection is worked up with delicate volumes, structured shapes and firm outlines, all thanks to its materials and prints it retains freshness and movement. Fall/Spring.

Polina Firenze
The brand name is dedicated to Polina Diomida, first daughter of the artists and designers: there is Florence in the brand name to emphasize its deep roots both in inspiration and in production. Collections focused on style and on the search for and development of new finishing techniques. New traditions.

Ornella Rijos
Since 1984 has been one of the most renowned and prestigious names in the world of handcraft of costume jewelry and haute couture brooches, ribbons, jewelry sets and films are skillfully created by hand, personalized with handcrafted finishing and decorated with motifs inspired by the natural world, art and classic jewelry. A rarity.

Giuseppe
Only unique items that use the finest skins - elk, python, crocodile - carefully selected, tanned and dyed by hand according to the noble tradition of leather Made in Italy. Their styles are timeless, eclectic.

Quirina Ego
Quirina Ego's young creative talents are from Tuscany, a land of great traditions in the art of jewelry, and they are engaged in shaping their own creations that are characterful in spirit and a bit grunge. The soul and the charm of hand-made items.

Sandrine Vandenker
A buyer and stylist by profession, before following her passion for jewelry her creations are romantic, warm and coloured with French chic taste, inspired by her Italian goodness and her love of travel, art and Italy. Contemporary.